

English

Sommaire

1. About the teacher	1
2. Items to buy	1
3. About IELTS	1
a) International English Language Testing System (IELTS)	1
b) What is it?.....	2
c) Why choose IELTS?.....	2
d) What is it made of?.....	2
1. The reading part	2
2. The Writing part	2
3. The Listening part	3
4. The speaking part	3
4. Baccalauréat:	3
a. Notions for the Baccalauréat:.....	3
b. What is the Baccalauréat test?.....	3
e) Vocabulary:	4
Règle p213.....	4

1. About the teacher

Mrs GARELIK

e-mail : dgarelik@hattemer.fr

2. Items to buy

Stuff to be bought:

- 1 notebook
 - index cards
-

3. About IELTS

a) International English Language Testing System (IELTS)

IELTS about it (<https://www.ielts.org/>)

b) What is it?

IELTS is the high-stakes English test for study¹, migration² or work³.

c) Why choose IELTS?

- To assess English language skills at all levels
- The oral is a face-to-face speaking for real-life context
- The Biometric security protects and ensures test integrity
- video about why to chose IELTS

d) What is it made of?

The IELTS is in 4 parts:

- reading 1hr
- righting 1hr
- Listening 30 minutes + 10 minutes of transfer
- speaking 11 to 14 minutes

Every part is graded out of 9, the overall grade is the average of the four parts.

1. The reading part

- a. composed of 3 different texts with approximately 2750word (overall (~1000 words each))
- b. never read the texts
- c. The 3 texts are of general interest (science, ...)
- d. no knowledge is required to answer the texts
- e. all the answers are in the texts
- f. total of 40 question (13 questions on the 1st 13 questions on the 2nd 14 questions for the 3rd text)
- g. No loss of points for the wrong answer

2. The Writing part

- h. 2 different tasks
 - i. the 1st one → min 150 words
 1. Mainly about summarising a graph/chart/... } a 1/3 rd of the points
 2. no knowledge required
 - ii. the 2nd → min 150 words
 1. Opinion on a specific topic } a 2/3rd of the points

¹ An IELTS certificate is recognised as evidence of proficiency in English by more than 10,000 education and training providers worldwide. Some universities in non-English speaking countries require an IELTS score, where courses are taught in English.

² IELTS is accepted as evidence of English language proficiency for study, work and migration in Australia, Canada, New Zealand and the UK, as well as for study and work in the USA. Each country sets its own IELTS requirements. For up-to-date information, please visit the relevant government websites.

³ Employers, professional bodies and associations accept IELTS

Organisations around the world rely on IELTS to help them select the right people.
Who accepts IELTS?

3. The Listening part

- i. 4 parts in the audio
 - i. You only listen once to each part
 - ii. Difficulty increases
 - iii. Monologues and/or conversations
 - iv. different accents
 - v. 40 questions (10/10/10/10) → for each = 1pt
 - 1. ! Spelling is taken into account

4. The speaking part

- j. One-on-one (face to face to the examiner)
 - i. 3 parts
 - 1. 1st last between 4 and 5 minutes we will be asked questions on personal information and information on everyday subjects.
 - 2. 2nd part is 1 min prep and 2 min talking
 - a. It's only us talking.
 - b. we will talk on the subject given on a card
 - c. at the end the examiner may have 1 or 2 minutes of follow-up questions
 - 3. a discussion with the examiner
 - a. last 4 to 5 minutes
 - b. The discussion is going to be the same theme of the card of the 2nd part.
 - c. it's a mix of the 1st and 2nd part

4. Baccalauréat:

a. Notions for the Baccalauréat:

- 1. Myths and heroes
- 2. places and forms of power
- 3. Idea of progress
- 4. spaces and exchanges

b. What is the Baccalauréat test?

→ lv1:

- 3h
- it is not suggested to quote the text unless you are asked

→ lv2:

- 2h
- you can quote the text

➤ Written exam:

- 2 parts:
 - 1. comprehension /10

- a. 2 texts
- b. Questions to answer
2. Essay /₁₀
 - a. 2 essays (~270 words)

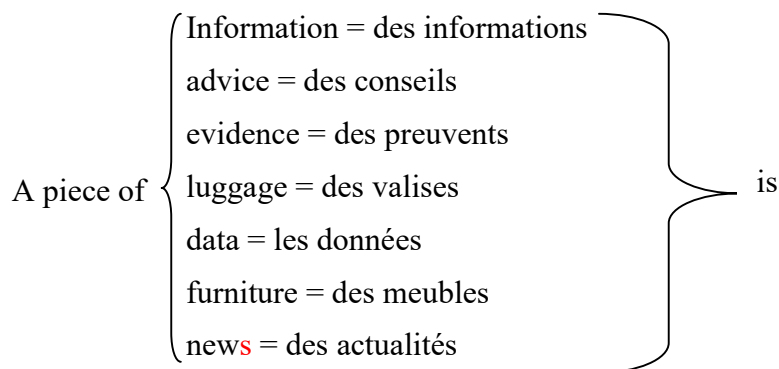

e) Vocabulary:

- ✓ to quote → to use line from the text
- ✓ intertwined → tangled → Related

Règle p213

nom dénombrable en français, indénombrable en anglais:

certain noms sont dénombrables en français mais indénombrable en anglais: ils ne peuvent pas prendre de "s", mais ils ont un sens pluriel alors qu'ils sont conjugués avec un verbe au singulier. Parmi ces mots figure:

Exemple :

My advice is valuable

The news is good